with President Clinton on the many matters of common interest and concern, Government had been glad of the opportunity for exchanging views with Mr. Talbott on matters of mutual interest, in particular on building up Indo-US bilateral relations, Prime Minister also expressed appreciation for President Clinton's sympathy on the death of two Indian soldiers in Somalia and for the sentiments expressed by the US President on India's endeavour to contribute the restoration of peace in Somalia.

(c) and (d) Government have repeatedly emphasized that there has been no change in the extent of support being provided by Pakistan to terrorism in India in the form of arms, equipment and training facilities and the infiltration of mercenaries. This was corroborated by available evidence. The US Government have stated that the US will continue to press Pakistan to cease aiding and abetting terrorism in India, but have also conveyed that, according to their impression, official Pakistani support to terrorism in India has declined. Government continue to impress upon all friendly Governments, including the US, the factual situation relating to Pakistani involvement in promoting terrorism in India.

Deployment of more troops in Somalia

4608. SHRI K. R. MALKANI : Will the Minister of EXTERNAL AFFAIRS be pleased to state :

(a) whether it is a fact that the U.N. want us to send 2,000 more troops in addition to the 5,000 which are already there in Somalia ;

(b) whether it is also a fact that U.S.A. and European countries have withdrawn the bulk of their forces from Somalia ; and

(c) if so, would Government explain why we have committed forces in Somalia when we have no vital national interest in that country and when Somalia had never asked either for our troops or for any other foreign country's troops ?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF EXTERNAL AFFAIRS (SHRI R. L. BHATIA) : (a) and (b) Yes, Sir.

(c) As part of our traditional policy of supporting and participating in UN Peace keeping Operations, India joined the International effort to create at secure environment for providing humanitarian relief to the people of Somalia where there is no recognised Government. The presence of our contingent has received appreciation from the Somali people.
